

Mosaics

Channel your inner artist and take a class with Mia Schon, one of Israel's best mosaic artists. Mia has a passion for creating murals and often uses local tiles and recycled materials in both her commissioned pieces and public street art. Twice a month, she teaches mosaic workshops to students of all ages out of her Tel Aviv art studio. 058-7724373, mia@miaschon.com, mosaicwithmia.com

Tualma

Tualma, meaning "Your Soul" in Spanish is an all natural pharmacotherapy and home massage studio, founded by a practicing masseuse and nature lover, Jenny. One of the most unique services that Tualma offers is a natural pharmacy workshop where participants are able to hand-make their own cosmetics using only natural ingredients that can be found in any kitchen. By the end of the workshop, participants will feel a newfound appreciation and love for nature and themselves as well as a true responsibility to advocate for the natural world, ecology, and simplistic living. 054-5932418, tualma.co.il

Woodworking

Looking to pick up a new hobby? Consider taking a beginners, advanced or private carpentry course with Shay Goral, a carpenter of 15 years. Shay teaches at his studio in Tel Aviv called Fantasies in Wood, which was once run by his father and has been open for 28 years. In four 3-hour sessions, students learn about types of wood, the basics of woodworking tools, the economics behind woodworking and techniques for carpenters. Have the choice of making a table with stools or a toolbox and dresser, which of course, you get to take home.

Chocolate making: Mokaya

The name Mokaya stems from an ancient Indian tribe, who discovered the power of cocoa beans in cuisine and for the soul. In this 2-3 hour workshop at the Mokaya Chocolate Factory, participants handcraft pralines and chocolate works-of-art, in addition to a wine tasting and of course, chocolate tasting.
